MONDAY MORNING, NOV. 28, 1864.

Four Years Since and Now.

During the first years of Buchanan's Administration, our whole nation was blessed with an unexampled prosperity. In every State the elements of wealth were increasing, and the growth of our population was only surpassed by the development of the nation's resources. The Western, Southern, and Middle States, planted in seed time, and confidently waited for the coming harvests. The full granaries of the Northwest went to feed the operatives of our own land, and crossed the ocean to supply the wants of foreign nations. And this prosperity was most peculiarly observable in the Southern States, whose cotton, rice, sugar, and tobacco, commanded a surer profit to the producer in the markets of the world, than the products of any other lands, or any other products of our own.

To-day the States that were the richest in their harvests, and the most spendthrift in their habits, are devastated, ruined, desolate. They are hemmed in by a circle of iron-clads on the sea, and level bayonets upon the land, while hostile columns, bent on the fell purposes of war, march through the once peaceful regions of the South, and leave desolation where once smiled peace and plenty. The slave no longer owns allegiance to the master, and waits but the coming of the Federal armies to claim his freedom, and exercises its first privilege by assuming the soldier's garb, to turn his arm against the land of his late masters.

The sympathizer with our enemies will find some pretext for charging all the loss and carnage of the last four years upon the Administration, and the party that dared to say that slavery should not spread, nor further trench upon free soil, and that says now that slavery must become extinct to secure the blessings of free government unimpaired in the future.

A spirit of opposition and a hope for power drive the foes of the Union party in the North, as well as in the South, to the extreme of political madness. They are prepared to ignore the fact that the rebellion was uncalled for; that it was denounced in its incipient stage by the best and noblest of Southern men, and that the attack on Sumter was an insult that our nation can never that forgive, nor forget, until its remembrance is wiped out in the defeat of all the elements organized and aided it.

Nations are not like individuals, who can rely upon the strong arm of the civil power to redress their wrongs. A nation wronged has no remedy save in its own strong arm, exercised in accordance with its constitutional rights and obligations, and when the Federal Government found itself betrayed—basely sold to treason—as in honor bound, it rose in the strength and majesty of the free millions that it represented, and declared that treason must be subdued and traitors punished.

That this decision and determination is just, is confirmed by the overwhelming decision at the ballot-box, repeated so lately and forcibly brought the whole land. And what is most remarkable is that the late vote was given by men whose lives are every hour endangered on the battle field, and by their friends who watch their course at home—by the tax-payers of the land, who are more afraid to lose the nation's honor and prestige than desirous to have their lives secure, or to avoid the expenses of the war.

The fact is the Southern leaders underrated the Northern spirit. They believed the free States to be wedded to the love of gain, and they fanned the cry of abolition until the hatred of it became a brand of discord, putting the Southron against the North, and then when the feeling was ripe: when the Northern Democracy refused to be longer subservient to the behests of slavery; when they had stolen the arsenals, and bound the sleeping giant while he slept, they precipitated a revolution, and in their presumption laid seige to Sumter.

They thought that since the scepter was passing away from them, and slavery could no more hope to be the dominant power, they had but to defy the Government, and dictate terms of separation to suit themselves. But the Northern States were not peopled by the supine race they counted them. The spirit of '76 needed but to kindle once, to burn as brightly as of old.

The "mud-sills" have become cavaliers, and the "greasy mechanics" are heroes when their country calls them from their homes and workshops to the tented field.

Civil war is terrible—conflict between brothers in blood and race, is horrible; but it has been forced upon us, and we have met it as a nation should. The issue lays with the southern people to fight it out until every southern city is in ruin, and every home a waste; until "the last man" has indeed, found "the last ditch," and their lands are irremediably forfeited to repay the expenses of the war, or to yield in time to a government whose care was ever beneficent, and whose arm will be stayed when its honor is no longer assailed.

It is a lamentable fact that the opposition journals of the day—at least in northern States—have little room in their columns for anything but denunciations of the Government. They seldom favor their hearers with condemnations of the rebellion, or a discourse on treason; and their factious course leads us to conclude that each Union victory is felt by them to be a disaster to their cause, as most certainly it is.

VICTORIA ITEMS.—Mr. and Mrs. Kean were coming to Victoria, and the citizens were making arrangements to secure their performance at the Theater there. It was estimated that the cost for each evening they would perform would be some $900, and the price of seats from pit to boxes, ranged from $1 25 to $5 each, to be charged on the evening they would perform.

Mayor Harris, of Victoria, offers his portly person to perform "Falstaff," in an amateur performance for some charitable object. The Colonist says: His Worship's portly figure and jovial face on the board would unquestionably draw a full house.

COTTON.—This article of manufacture was quoted last month in New York as high as $1 90 per lb. in legal tender rates, and suddenly fell to $1 25 per lb. Quite a change from the good old times when ten cents was considered a fair price for it to manufacture.

THE new State of Nevada contains more territory than all the New England States measured together.

REDUCED FARES AND INCREASED PASSENGERS.—The Golden Age and America both sailed on Nov. 14th, the former carrying about 400 and the latter about 750 passengers, in all between 1,100 and 1,200, which is more than have left San Francisco any day for a long time. The rates of passage by the Golden Age were: Upper saloon, $125; first cabin, $125; second cabin and steerage, $18; and by the America: First cabin, $125; second cabin, $65 to $90; steerage, $45. The increase of departures was owing in a great measure to the reduced rates. The next opposition steamer sails on the 12th of December.

GEN. DIX is the oldest employed General now prominently before the public. He was born in New Hampshire, in 1798; Hunter was born in Washington, in 1802; McClernand in Kentucky, in 1812; Meade in Spain, of American parents, in 1816; Canby in Kentucky, in 1817; Butler in New Hampshire, in 1818; Hooker in Massachusetts, in 1819; Sherman in Ohio, in 1820; Grant in Ohio, in 1822; Franklin in Pennsylvania, in 1823; Hancock in the same State, in 1824; Burnside in Indiana, in 1824; Steel in Germany, in 1824, and Slocum in New York, in 1827.

CAPTURE OF A VALUABLE BLOCKADE RUNNER.—The United States steamer Montgomery captured the steel-built English blockade runner Bat, after a chase in which operation the Bat was crippled by a shell from the Montgomery. The captured steamer of 325 tons burden, is very strong, and can steam 14 knots with ease. This was her first trip, and she had only been 19 days at sea. She is likely to prove very serviceable to the Government to assist in catching blockade runners, as she can follow them in water too shallow for most of our armed vessels.

The United States frigate Wabash recently went ashore on Frying Pan Shoals, off the North Carolina coast, on her passage from Port Royal, S. C. All her shot and shell were thrown overboard to lighten her, and her battery would have been thrown over also, but for the fortunate arrival of [illegible] her assistance of the Wilmington blockaders, when she was got off, with some damage to her hull. She is now at Hampton Roads.

There has been left at the office at the Napa Reporter a block of redwood taken from the trunk of a tree, nearly a hundred feet from the ground, and in which, perfectly imbedded in wood, and over a foot from the surface, was found a solid stone some two by three inches. The block was being manufactured into shingles, when the saw struck the stone, cutting it partly in two.

POLYGAMY IN ENGLAND.—The trial of the celebrated Yelverton case in the English House of Lords has developed the fact that a man may lawfully have a separate wife in each of the three countries of England, Scotland and Ireland, whom he may respectively repudiate in each of the others, a legal marriage in one country not being legal in another.

THE GOVERNMENT CREDIT.—When the Government advertised a loan of $75,000,000 in June, only $44,000,000 were taken, the bids not coming up to the expected mark. The remaining $31,000,000 were offered in September, and the whole amount has been taken at 4 per cent. premium, the bids reaching $62,000,000. This shows a growing confidence in the Government, in spite of every effort to destroy it.

WILLIAM CULLEN BRYANT was the recipient of a testimonial in the Century Club of New York, on Saturday evening, November 5th, upon the occasion of his reaching the allotted span of years for man—threescore and ten. Longfellow, Lowell, Dana, Whittier, Holmes and others had been invited, and were to be there.

In Pennsylvania it has recently been decided that the running of cars on passenger railroads on Sunday, by reason of the noise accompanying them, is a disturbance of the public peace of the Sabbath, and the rights of worship and of rest; and drivers of such cars may be arrested and held for a breach of the peace.

Artemus Ward is not only writing a book of travels, but is also busily engaged in preparing a pictorial entertainment of the Mormons, to be given in a neat little hall on Broadway, New York some time this fall. It will be in the Albert Smith style of Alpine and other exhibitions, and with Artemus as the showman and illustrator, will probably be one of the most successful enterprises there.

THE Petersburg correspondent of the Mobile Register says that our sharpshooters kill their artillerists sometimes a mile distant. He says that the day before he wrote a spent ball struck the ground in front of General Lee, and hit his heels and a few minutes after, a young officer, standing near Lee, was shot through the lungs.

THE silver from the Masonic Jewels found in the ruins of the Winthrop House, in Boston, after the fire several months ago, was sent to the U. S. Mint, and half dollar pieces coined from it, which have been sold to the members of the different lodges, encampments, &c. These are the only fifty cent pieces coined this year.

A NEW IDEA.—R. B. Woodward, of the San Francisco What Cheer House, is exhibiting his private residence, grounds and works of art—the whole the most elegant on this coast—to visitors, at fifty cents a head, for the benefit of the Christian Commission.

AMONG five hundred prisoners captured by Sheridan, in Thursday's fight, was a rebel Colonel, commanding a brigade. When brought in, he threw down his sword at the feet of the Provost Marshal, exclaiming: "The Confederacy has gone to hell! The men won't fight any more, neither will I."

OUT of the three hundred people who undertook to cross the river near Cracow, Poland, in a grain barge, on their return from a religious celebration, one hundred and twenty-five were drowned, through the carelessness and drunkenness of the boatman.

THE largest single payment ever made to an author was the check of £20,000, paid by Messrs. Longmans to Macaulay, for the third and fourth volumes of his history.

A RECENT African traveler says: A cannibal is not necessarily ferocious. He eats his fellow creatures, not because he hates them, but because he loves them.

DEATH OF AN ACTRESS.—Marian Bell, who used to be the reigning star at Bella Union Melodeon, in San Francisco, died recently of consumption.

"God's COUNTRY" is the beautiful and appropriate name given by General Sherman's soldiers to the Free States, in which they were born and reared.

A BOY has been captured in Paris for stealing cats, which his father killed and sold to the cheap eating-house keepers of that city.

CARGO OF OYSTERS.—The schooner Sarah Louisa, just arrived from Washington Territory, brought the largest cargo of oysters that has ever been received at this port. It consisted of upwards of four thousand baskets. They belong to Winant & Co., Metropolitan Market, and are said to be not only large but very palatable, which makes them an acceptable dish to our epicures.—S. F. Flag.

Special Income Tax.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN TO THE PUBLIC, that by a joint resolution of Congress, approved June 30th, 1864, a special income duty of five per cent. was levied upon the income of the year 1863, in addition to the annual income assessed in May last. The special income list of taxes, for the Third Division of the Oregon District, containing the county of Multnomah, is now open for public examination at my Office, No. 100 Front Street, Portland, for ten days from date. All who apply for abatement of taxes, must make their statement in detail, showing from what sources derived, and for what purpose expended, in order that the Assessor may arrive at a correct statement of their income. If any fraudulent returns are made, 100 per cent. addition will be added to the tax. No abatement allowed after the expiration of the ten days.

[illegible] Gen. Davis [illegible] the 3d of October [illegible] [illegible] remarks:

... [illegible] he would sooner lay down his life, see his family [illegible], and his property lost forever, than to [illegible] his country under Yankee rule. [Enthusiastic applause.

GEN. HARDEE'S SPEECH.

Amid loud cries for him, succeeded by cheers at his appearance, Gen. Hardee proceeded to say he was (turning to the President) no orator as Bragg was, (applause) and could not make much of a speech, nor did he take the warm welcome he had met, preferring to believe with Gen. Beauregard, it was more the due of the gallant men he had so lately commanded. Some curiosity might be felt as to how things were going on at the front, and that curiosity, he having just come from there, would endeavor to satisfy. The general then proceeded to give a resume of the operations attending on the fall of Atlanta, and concluded by saying he had a conversation with the General commanding a short time before his departure, in which that officer had told him that on Tuesday next he hoped to lay his claws upon the State road and, having once fixed them there, it was not his intention to let them lose their hold.

In closing, Gen. Hardee also declared it was not our fault, only our misfortune, that at Jonesboro we were unsuccessful and that now, though few would think so, he would declare that Macon, Augusta and Montgomery were far better covered by the present position of the army than before.—[Applause.]

GEN. COBB.

At the conclusion of Gen. Hardee's remarks, Maj.-Gen. Cobb was called for, and coming forward, made some very humorous remarks, to the immense delectation of the crowd, who greeted the orator's bon mots with loud applause, and even when he had finished seemed to regret he should have brought his speech to so sudden a close.

HAPPY HITS.—George William Curtis, the distinguished author, nominated for Congress in one of the New York districts, made the following happy opening to one of his recent speeches:

"There is one Major-General in the service of the United States who does not believe in an immediate cessation of hostilities. There is one General who did not give the rebels a day to escape up the Shenandoah Valley—a General who is never late—one of the early birds that catches all the worms. [Applause.] There is another Major-General in the service of the United States whose words of heroic loyalty rang like a bugle call through the ranks of rebellion and secession: 'If any man hauls down the American flag shoot him on the spot!' [Cheers.] My friends, there is another Major-General in the service of the United States, and he says: 'If any man hauls down the American flag let us all go at once into convention, and exhaust all the resources of statesmanship known to the civilized world, in order to contrive some means by which we can coax him to haul it up again.'"

PROFESSOR BACHE.—We regret to hear that this gentleman, for twenty-one years chief of the United States Coast Survey, and so eminent and useful in his profession, has been for some months past incapable of discharging the duties of his position. He is afflicted, we are sorry to say, with an affection of the brain—a disease which has become so common of late years among men of middle age, as well as those in the decline of life. Professor Bache is now with his friend, Professor Pierce, in Cambridge, Massachusetts.—New York Express.

COMPROMISE.—We heard an old "salt" make a very sensible remark the other day, upon the subject of compromise: "If there were such a thing as compromise," he remarked, "the South or the rebellious portion of it, would come to the Convention with their accursed flag; and it would be crossed with the good old American flag. And you see decent Americans could never stand that. There would be a row in a minute. No sailor would ever submit to that outrage. And for that reason, if for no other, there never could be a compromise." Good!—S. F. Flag.

LAWS OF OREGON.

Acts passed at the Third Regular Session of the Legislative Assembly.

AN ACT supplemental to an act entitled "An act to provide for the ordinary expenses of the State Government and other general and specific appropriations."

Be it enacted by the Legislative Assembly of the State of Oregon:

Section 1. That there is hereby appropriated in addition to other appropriations made at this session, the following appropriations to be paid out of any moneys in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated: To pay for engraving and printing the State Bonds, provided for by the act of the present session granting bounties to volunteers, the sum of eight hundred dollars; to pay for blank muster rolls, pay rolls, registers, allotments, certificates, powers of attorney, and such other blanks and books as the Adjutant General of this State is required to furnish by the said act granting bounties to soldiers, the sum of two hundred dollars; [illegible] in payment of necessary expenses of the special committees appointed by the Legislative Assembly at the present session in visiting the Insane Asylum and State Penitentiary at Portland, the sum of two hundred dollars; and to Charles [illegible], in payment of similar expenses of the same committees, the sum of forty dollars.

Sec. 2. Whereas, a portion of the above named sums are now past due, and the recent demand for adjustment creates an emergency, this act shall take effect and be in force from and after its approval by the Governor.

Approved, October 21st, 1864.

AN ACT to appropriate money for the payment of the Legislative Assembly, the Code Commissioner, and the expenses of locating public lands.

Be it enacted by the Legislative Assembly of the State of Oregon:

Section 1. That there is appropriated the sum of eleven thousand and five hundred dollars, or as much thereof as may be necessary to the pay and mileage of the members and the pay of the clerks and officers of the Legislative Assembly.

Sec. 2. And be it further enacted: That there be appropriated twelve hundred dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary for the per diem of the Code Commissioner, at the rate of [illegible] dollars per day for the time actually employed since the session of the last Assembly, and to pay said Code Commissioner the sum of one hundred and sixty dollars balance on the account of 1862, for which the appropriation made at that session was insufficient. Provided, That this appropriation is to be in full satisfaction of all claims for services on the part of such Commissioner, and that his account be verified by his [illegible].

Sec. 3. And there is hereby appropriated, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, the sum of nine hundred and seventy-three dollars [illegible] to pay the expenses [illegible] locating public lands.

Sec. 4. Inasmuch as there has been no provision made for the payment of [illegible] this act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Sec. 4. All taxes collected by the [illegible] by the sheriff of the county [illegible] may be, and paid into the county treasury [illegible] tax [illegible] the issuing of the license [illegible] of this act.

Sec. 5. Any person who [illegible] described in this act, in any house, tenement, building, room, or part thereof, owned or occupied, or controlled by him, is to be deemed a keeper of [illegible] the meaning of this act, and shall be [illegible] accordingly; and the property so used shall be [illegible] the license required by this act, and the fine imposed for the failure to secure the same.

Sec. 6. Any person who within the meaning of this act is deemed the keeper of a public dance house [illegible] fail or neglect to secure a license as required [illegible] shall on conviction thereof, before any justice of the peace, city or town recorder, or other [illegible] jurisdiction, in a suit in the name of the State, [illegible] fined by a fine, not less than [illegible] hundred nor more than one thousand dollars, and imprisonment not [illegible] nor more than six months.

Sec. 7. It shall be the duty of the sheriff of any county where such dance houses are kept, to [illegible] contemplated by this act and if such sheriff shall [illegible] neglect to prosecute the suit [illegible] he shall on conviction forfeit [illegible] for each and every offence; Provided, [illegible] nothing in this act shall be so construed as to prevent any person from prosecuting the suit [illegible].

Sec. 8. Inasmuch as there is no law [illegible] to regulate hurdy-gurdy dance houses, this act shall [illegible] effect and be in force from and after the first Monday in December, A. D. 1864.

Approved, October 21st, 1864.

AN ACT to make valid acknowledgments of deeds and other instruments of writing, taken before or certified by County Clerks, and Clerks of the Supreme Court of this State, since October 17th, 1862.

WHEREAS, by a statute of the State in force before the enactment of the Code of Civil Procedure, the county clerks and the clerks of the supreme Court were authorized by law to take acknowledgments of deeds and other instruments of writing, required to be acknowledged before any officer; and whereas, said statute was repealed by mistake or accident, therefore—

Be it enacted by the Legislative Assembly of the State of Oregon, as follows:

Sec. 1. That all acknowledgments of deeds or other instruments of writing, taken and certified by any county clerk or clerk of the Supreme Court, since Oct. 17, 1862, and the deed or instrument of writing so acknowledged and certified shall be as good and valid in law and equity as though the act entitled "An act to enlarge the [illegible] of the Clerks of the District and Supreme Courts," passed December 21st, 1855, had never been repealed, and was still in force.

Sec. 2. Because there are many deeds and records in existence acknowledged as above described, and the public interest demands that they should be declared valid, that innocent parties may thereby be protected, therefore this act shall be in force from and after its approval by the Governor.

Approved, October 21st, 1864.

The two acts following this, are special laws that we publish for the advantage of our readers East of the mountains, though not required by law so to do.

AN ACT to create and organize Union County.

Be it enacted by the Legislative Assembly of the State of Oregon:

Section 1. That all that portion of Baker county commencing at a point where the 45th parallel of north latitude crosses the summit of the Blue Mountains, thence running along said line to its intersection with Snake river, thence up the middle of the channel of said river to the mouth of Powder river, thence up the middle of the channel of said river to the mouth of the North Fork of the same, thence up the main channel of the said North Powder river to its source, thence west to a point intersecting the east boundary line of Umatilla county, thence northerly along said line to the place of beginning, be and the same is hereby created and organized into a separate county to be known as Union county.

Sec. 2. That all within said boundaries shall compose a county for all civil and military purposes, and shall be entitled to the same rights and privileges, and subject to the same laws, rules, regulations and restrictions, as all other counties in this State.

Sec. 3. That until the next general election, the following named persons are appointed to the offices hereinafter named, to wit: County Judge, D. W. [illegible]; County Clerk, Isaac G. Thomas; Sheriff, [illegible]; County Commissioners, Samuel [illegible] and [illegible]; Treasurer, David Kinsey; Assessor, J. A. J. [illegible]; School Superintendent, J. [illegible]; Coroner, [illegible] Stockton. Provided, however, that the county court shall have power to fill all vacancies in county and precinct offices.

Sec. 4. The county seat shall be temporarily located at LaGrande, until the same shall be permanently located by a vote of the people.

Sec. 5. An election shall be held in the said county of Union on the first Monday of March, 1865, for the permanent location of said county seat, which shall be held in accordance with the laws governing general elections, [illegible] days before said election, the sheriff of said county shall post three written notices of said election in each precinct of the county, and furnish the judges of election with poll books; which notices and poll books shall be prepared by the clerk; and the place within said county receiving the greatest number of votes shall be the permanent county seat.

Sec. 6. That the clerk of Baker county shall send to the clerk of Union county a certified transcript of the delinquent taxes from the assessment roll of last year, which were assessed within the present limits of Union county, and also a certified transcript of the [illegible] and property within the limits of Union county for the present year, 1864, and the said taxes shall be paid to the proper officers of Union county.

Sec. 7. The county court at the December term shall have power to change the rate of taxation levied on the assessment roll of the present year.

Sec. 8. Union county shall pay to Baker county [illegible] share of the indebtedness, according to the relative assessments of the two sections for 1863, after deducting the amounts paid for public buildings in Baker county, and the July term of county court in 1864; and the clerk of Baker county shall transmit a certified statement of such account to the county court of Union county.

Sec. 9. The clerk of Baker county shall [illegible] the adjournment of the October term of the county court in said county, for the present year, transmit a certified transcript of all causes pending in the circuit [illegible] courts in Baker county, that should properly have been commenced in Union county, had the same been created and organized at the commencement of such suit, and all records properly belonging to Union county, and such suits shall be tried in Union county, and the records [illegible] be recorded in suitable book or books by the clerk of Union county.

Sec. 10. Whereas, the rapid settlement and growth of the country embraced in said county of Union has produced an emergency which still exists in the new and remote portion of said county; therefore, to protect the rights of citizens and insure the administration of justice, this act shall take effect and be in force from and after its approval by the Governor.

Approved, October 14th, 1864.

AN ACT to create and organize the County of Grant.

ALLEN'S

LUNG BALSAM!

The Remedy for Curing

CONSUMPTION, COUGHS, COLDS,

Asthma, Croup,

Diseases of the Throat, Bronchitis, Pains and Oppression of the Chest and Lungs, Difficult Breathing and all the Diseases of the Pulmonary Organs.

ITS ACTION IS EXPECTORANT, ALTERATIVE, SUDORIFIC, SEDATIVE, DIAPHORETIC AND DIURETIC, which renders it one of the most valuable remedies known for curing diseases of the lungs. It excites expectoration, and causes the lungs to throw off the phlegm or mucus; CHANGES THE SECRETIONS AND PURIFIES THE BLOOD; heals the irritated parts; gives strength to the digestive organs; brings the liver to its proper action, and imparts strength to the whole system. Such is the immediate and satisfactory effect, that it is WARRANTED TO BREAK UP THE MOST DISTRESSING COUGH IN A FEW HOURS' TIME, if not of too long standing. IT IS WARRANTED to give entire satisfaction, even in the MOST CONFIRMED CASES OF CONSUMPTION. IT IS WARRANTED NOT to produce costiveness (which is the case with most remedies), or affect the head, as it contains no opium in any form. IT IS WARRANTED TO BE PERFECTLY HARMLESS to the most delicate child, although it is an active and powerful remedy for restoring the system. THERE IS NO REAL NECESSITY FOR SO MANY DEATHS BY CONSUMPTION, when ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM will prevent it, if only taken in time.

Sold by all Druggists. Price $1 per bottle.
